Granville Public Library

217 E. Broadway | Granville, Ohio | 740-587-0196 | www.GranvilleLibrary.org

Mar | Apr 2019

Door-to-Door Service: GPL Special Delivery

What is GPL Special Delivery? Granville Public Library's homebound service delivers books and other library materials to qualified patrons who reside in our service district.

How It Works. We deliver to your home once a month on a set delivery day. You can request specific titles and authors or you can give us general guidelines and let us make the selections for you. All materials must be returned the following month unless renewed in advance. There are no overdue fines, but lost or damaged materials may result in cancellation of your service.

How to Qualify. To qualify for GPL Special Delivery, you must live within the Granville Exempted School service district. You may qualify if you have a condition that prevents you from coming to the library, such as illness, disability, or impaired vision. Kendal at Granville and Middleton Senior Living residents automatically qualify, regardless of their health or mobility.

Find Out More. For more information, contact Amy, Outreach Coordinator, at 740-587-0196, ext. 112 or email aunkefer@granvillelibrary.org.

Organizing with the KonMari Method

with certified KonMari Consultant, Michell Domke

Thu. Mar. 7 | 7-8:30 PM

The KonMari Method is a life changing process of exploring your life through your stuff. It first begins by visualizing your ideal lifestyle, then examining your belongings and choosing what to keep or discard based on what sparks joy, and finally organizing and creating new habits. Learn the basics for how to tackle the five KonMari categories in your home: clothing, books, papers, komono (miscellaneous), and sentimental items. Bring an item of clothing to practice folding (if time allows). Sponsored by the Friends of the Granville Public Library.
